

Citizen Advisory Committee

“Are You Interested in Vocational Rehabilitation? Please join the York OVR Citizen Advisory Committee”

CAC Mission: To promote excellence in the provision of vocational rehabilitation services in the York District Office area in order to maximize the employment of individuals with disabilities.

Who We Are: The York OVR CAC is made up of current and former consumers of OVR services, family members, community agencies and advocacy groups.

What We Do: We advocate on the local level for persons with disabilities seeking employment.
We improve OVR service delivery model by offering valuable input relevant to the unique needs of the district
We develop positive relationships with local stakeholders and increase public awareness of the value OVR provides to individuals with disabilities and employers.

Who Should Join: OVR Customers, Service Providers, OVR Staff and Local Businesses. The best way to improve quality of service is to gain perspectives from all that are involved.

Meetings: Meetings are held bi-monthly. Meetings take place at the York District Office. (2550 Kingston Rd. Ste 207. York, Pa. 17402) You can also participate via phone conference 717-612-4733 or 1-855-750-1027. The pin number for the conference call is 236562
