

What are the benefits of serving on the CAC?

...

CAC members advise OVR in its mission to assist people with disabilities in their employment goals.

CAC members can network and build professional contacts with other CAC members.

CAC members receive training and information to help them better understand OVR's philosophy, policies, and general operations.

Citizen Advisory Committee

Contact Information:

Norristown District Office
1875 New Hope Street
Norristown, PA 19401

Phone:
Kathleen Brown
(484) 500-1986

Email:
Norristown.OVR.CAC@gmail.com

Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC)

Learn about the CAC's mission, purpose, and membership.

Make a difference in your community.

Norristown Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR): Bucks, Chester, Delaware, & Montgomery Counties

CAC Mission

...

To support and advise OVR through a diverse and motivated group of current and former OVR customers, parents and advocates of customers, service providers, and other area stakeholders.

CAC Purpose

...

To evaluate the services provided by OVR in the service area and provide information and advice to the OVR District Administrator, based on the needs of people with disabilities in the local community.

About the CAC

...

The CAC takes on a variety of projects that help OVR fulfill its mission and engage the local community.

How does membership impact people with disabilities and the local community?

...

CAC members make recommendations and provide input directly to Norristown OVR administrators.

CAC projects are geared toward assisting and advising OVR in its mission to assist people with disabilities to find and maintain jobs.

Time Commitment

...

The CAC meet virtually four times per year on a quarterly basis for about 90 minutes.

CAC members also work collaboratively between meetings on projects and issues related to service goals.

I want to join the Norristown CAC. What is the next step?

...

Email a letter of interest to: Norristown.ovr.cac@gmail.com. A CAC member will be in touch to discuss membership.

Regular meetings are currently virtual. Accommodations such as interpreters or readers will be made for CAC members, upon request.